MINISTER’S MESSAGE FROM DAVE’S DESK

As we turn our calendars over to September, it marks summer drawing to a close and getting back into routines for many, especially for those who have kids returning to school. I hope that everyone reading this had a good summer with time to relax, get away for vacations, and enjoy a lot of outdoor activities. I pray that we have a warm fall that we may have more time to enjoy the outdoors before we see snow on the ground once again.

This also marks a time of church activities becoming part of our routines as well. Things like Sunday school, confirmation classes, a first communion class planned for the end of October and various tasks around our buildings that need to be attended to before winter. But one other subject that I ask you to consider is our stewardship to the church. This is not only considering our financial gifts to the church that is so important, but also our time and talents. I’d like to share a poem with you that illustrates how we sometimes can fall in our responsibilities of the church, and it applies to business as well.

“Four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody”

“There is an important job to be done, and everybody was sure that somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that because it was everybody’s job. Everybody thought anybody could do it, but nobody realized that everybody wouldn’t do it. It ended up that everybody blamed somebody when nobody did what anybody could have.”

These words of wisdom illustrate that we all need to work together, using our God given gifts. There are so many who do so much in our buildings and parish. The council’s, committee’s, teachers, WELCA’s, quilters as make worship, activities, and our buildings function. I’m so grateful for all who serve in these capacities. But it’s been said that in churches, 20% of the people do 80% of the work. Not sure how accurate that is but we would like to see more people consider helping in the many ministries of the church, to make it easy for all. We also understand that there are individuals physically unable to help in many areas. We need to share those responsibilities as well.

My message is simple. I’m simply asking for everyone to look at our needs around the church and compare that to our time and talents. Maybe there’s a new ministry that excites you, let’s talk about it. Or if there is a task in the church that we might be good at because of our work background. Or something new that you’d like to try or learn. If we all do a little, we can accomplish so much. We are stronger together than we are as individuals.

I look forward to seeing activity in our buildings and pray that in some way, everybody is a part of it. I also look forward to another successful church year, as a parish working together.

In God’s peace, invite a friend,

Minister Dave
